

What to Expect When You Breed to Ulbert 390, Sport

Ulbert 390, Sport is an outstanding example of the modern dressage Friesian. He has three impressive gaits that exhibit reach and power. He is intelligent, willing and very trainable—traits he passes on to his offspring. Ulbert throws good size, quality movement, good conformation, abundant hair and beautiful heads.

Offspring Characteristics

- Good temperaments
- Kind, easygoing, and trainable
- Beautiful, noble heads
- Adds length to the neck
- Vertical neck
- Sloping shoulder
- Nice, wide loins
- Good length and slope in the croup
- Will add length to the front legs
- Straight front legs
- Long pasterns
- Big feet
- Tight legs
- Uphill build
- Powerful walk
- Excellent rhythm in the trot
- Balanced movement
- Jet black coats
- Abundant hair, adds a lot of hair
- Good size
- Can have slightly heavy head/neck connection

Ideal Pairing

Not recommended for mares with:

- Heavy head/neck connection
- Short in the poll
- Short hamstrings
- Front legs slightly under
- Sickie hocks
- Toes out at the walk